orders might be issued for the conduct of the procession of Swami God through Vishnu Temple street refd to. The petition was forwarded to the Dy. Commr for disposal. Another petition of December 1903 received from Sri Vaishnavas of Mandya Complaining against the conduct of Swami procession was forwarded to the Dy. Commr for report. In his kannada Rubkari No. 78 Dt 5th July. 1904, the Dy. Commr sent same abstracts of orders issued in the case from time to time Commencing from the year 1862 when the present dispute originated, and reported that the contending parties did not agree to a compromise and solicited orders of Govt in the matter. The matter was thereupon reserved for personal inspection. The then Hon. Secretary visited Mandya in January 1905 and inspected the Temples and heard both the parties who gave certain documents on which they relied. As no definite decision had been given by the Dy. Commr and District Magistrate in the case in recent years, and as the manual had ~~been~~ to be carefully enquired into and a decision arrived at, the Dy. Commr has requested to hold the enquiry and give his decision, leaving the aggrieved party to prefer an appeal to Govt on the Dy. Commrs. decision—

7) In September 1913, Anantarama Jois and other Smartha residents of Mandya appealed to Govt against the Dy. Commrs. order prohibiting the issue of a license for the procession of Sri Sakaleswara Swami in front of the Vaishnava Temple at Mandya. The Dy. Commr has submitted as called for in O. M. No 1153 Dy 18.10.1913, the report together with the entire records connected with the case for orders of Govt.

8) From the record received, it will be seen that Mr Ramanathan has conducted exhaustive enquiry into the case and has examined the contending parties & their witnesses, together with the documents produced by them. His statement of the case dy 5th March 1910 & his notes dy 24th Feby. 1912 go fully into the facts of the case.

9) In his statement of the case, ~~Mr Ramanathan~~ which gives a precis of the orders issued from time to time, Mr. Ramanathan states that the Temple of Sri Sakaleswara Swami had no utsava Vigraha until 1862 when one Rama Bhatta seems to have had a vigraha prepared and presented it to the Temple with an inscription at the foot of the image stating that it was presented by him. It was consecrated in that year and the utsavam was attempted to be performed. The Sri Vaishnavas ~~Thingh~~ whose street the procession had to pass, objected to this on the ground that it was against manual. The Smarthas approached H. H. the late Maharaja Sri Krishnaraja Wodeyar Bahadur who on 5th May 1862 gave them a Nirupa expressing disapprobation at the conduct of Sri Vaishnavas in obstructing a procession in a public road unheard of till then, and advising the petrs to approach the Commr in the matter. The Smarthas petd the Commr and were given an endorsement ✓ on 24-11-1862 to the effect that the Amildar had been ordered that the utsavam might be conducted in the public streets, but that he must take care not to allow it in private streets when it is against manual.

10) On the complaint of the parties, orders were passed (1) by Col Mc. Huttchen in 1864 prohibiting the procession under dispute, (2) by Col Hill in 1876 accepting the Amildar's opinion that the Smarthas who far outnumbered the Vaishnavas should be granted their prayer and that the utsavam might be allowed in the street in question, (3) by Mandya Amildar in 1882 to the effect that the utsavam might be conducted through all the streets but those of the Vaishnavas, and (4) by Mr. Saunders, Amildar, in 1898 refusing license to the utsavam being conducted through the disputed tracts unless both parties agreed and observing that the Maravas had kept such without intermission since 1875.

(11) Mr. Ramanathan further states that the latest orders are based on the prohibitory order of 1882 passed by the Huzur of Mandya for which no reason or argument is available, and that the earlier orders all direct that if the road in dispute be a public one and the procession is not against Manul, the procession may be allowed. He has examined the contending parties and their witnesses, as well as the documents produced by them, and in his submission dated to the Dy Comm. Dy 21st July. 1912, 21 he has framed 4 issues of this case which are discussed at length.

(12) As regard the Manul route for the processions of Sri Sakkeswara Swami, he states that as there was no intermission since 1862, and as the question has been before such officers since 1862 and so that orders have been passed, the question of manual has to be decided on its merits in the absence of any previous manual in the matter. He also states that the Sri Janardhana Swami Temple Street is a public one and that there is no manual prohibiting a Shaivite utsavam in the street opposite a Vaishnavite Temple.

(2) On a perusal of Mr. Ramanathan's memo and Statement of the case, the Dy. Commr. Mr. Chandy observes in his order Dy 6th July. 1913, that there has been no instance in which the Iswara Vigraha was successfully taken through the street in question that the question of manual does not therefore arise, that there is no doubt that the Sivaishnavas had been settled in the Agraharam for centuries and have successfully prevented Saiva Gods being taken in procession through the street in front of their Agraharam and Temple. He states that he is not prepared to permit a departure from this, and adds that he is unable to find that the Smarthas have suffered any public inconvenience by not going in procession through the street in question-

14) In his note of 18th March 1913 after visiting Mandya, the Dy. Commr. states that the Agrahar street is maintained by the Municipality, that there are very few permanent Smartha residents in Mandya - 355 families, that the dispute is one of religious interest, that no public inconvenience will be caused either by the religious procession going in front of Vaishnava Temple or by its not going, & that the matter appears to be one for decision by Govt. on grounds of public policy, and has directed that till such decision is obtained, he is not prepared to issue license for Sanatana procession-

15) In their appeal petition, Anantarama Jois and 3 other Smartha residents of Mandya State that the Dy. Commrs. order is opposed to law and standing order, that they

The Dy Com^r who further visited the locality says that no inconvenience is caused to the Smarthas by being prevented from taking their processions in the street before the Vishnu Temple.

17) As the contending parties say that they possess documents in their favor, a personal hearing may if appd be given them.

As it becomes necessary, the Govt in the Legislative Council contains both Vaishnavas & Saiva Temples & these processions are the order of the day. If there was really any strong objection to a Saiva procession passing in front of a Vaishnava Temple, or the converse of this Agamas such a thing would have been heard Jgs. 7-5-14 79) The main points at issue are there mentioned in the S. D.'s reports q. 5.3.1910 (typed) & 21.2.1912 (MSS) respectively. Answers to their Qrs. I think, indicate the way to the decision in the case. The points & the answers to them with be dealt with seriatim for convenience of reference.

(1). What is the Manual relating to the Utsavams of Sri Sakaleshwara Swami Temple? The answer to this is a single word viz- None! The temple though founded years previously had yet no Utsava muurti till 1862 when one made was available to use by a devotee. Since the latter date the Emarsha community have been making representations with the view to the preparation of a Manual & in the face of this circumstance it would be a futile attempt to look for an existing Manual. No Manual exists.

(2) Is the street in which the Sri Emarsha Swami Temple is situated & through which the Utsava muurti of Sri Sakaleshwara Swami is proposed to be taken on Utsava a public or a private one? The fact that the road is maintained & looked after by the town Municipality is,

I think, sufficient indication that the sheet is a public not a private one. The road is not closed to the general public & as such, the inference can only be that it is not, in any sense, a private one. As such it is not open to the Sthanikas Community to object to the Utsava being conducted along this sheet.

(3) Is it normal to prohibit a Shaivite Utsavam from passing thro. a public sheet in which a Vaishnavite temple is situated, & in front of the latter? or vice versa

The ceremony of opening explained by these words in Agamic law is that there shd be no "Bimbantarchana" i.e. that the images of two deities shd not be brought vis-a-vis into one another. So long as this contingency is or can be avoided, there can be no such prohibition as that mentioned. This contingency, needless to add, can be, & is really avoided in many ways. One way in which it is usually done is to draw a cross a jamma in front of the Sanctum Sanctorum (Garbha griha) of the Temple, turning the procession just on Utsava is passing in front of it. This is helped by another obstacle of a permanent nature the Sunda Khumba. In Evening practice this is the obstacle the problem & the accepted practice in vogue in Mysore City. Situated within the fort in this City are well known & very important temples. both Shaivite & Vaishnavite. and Utsavams of their Utsava murthis takes places several times during the Course of year By the very nature of their location it is absolutely necessary to one procession to pass in front of two or more temples which are not necessarily of the same persuasion. And this has happened for years now & no Trouble would appear to have been experienced at any time. It will be seen from this that there is no reason why the precedent in Mysore City Fort should be followed in this instance as well. The objections of the Sri Vaishnavas as to the locality & the procession passing in front of their temple does not appear to me to either reasonable or practicable. But there may be a lurking apprehension in their minds that this if allowed might pave the door for practices which may be repugnant to the tenor & terms of the new

of the localities. In other words that there may be processions of the Goruma devatha with its attendant animal sacrifices. Pond. Dao and Mirth Rice can be considered the best families. They miss they appear the ten tatches. With the exercise of a little tact & some forethought on the part of the local Magistracy, with promptness on the part of the Police, any threatened breach of the peace may be prevented.

To sum up. I am of opinion that the sentence of the Sri Vaishnavas is untenable & that the Utsavam proposed may be permitted, necessary precautions to prevent apprehended breaches of peace being taken by the local Magistracy & the Police should circumstances indicate or require it.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No 3064 Mysg 165-13 4, dated 1st May 1914 requesting the Commissioner for certain records re the procession of Sri Sakaleswara swamy in front of the Vyshnava temple at Mandya, I have the honor to state as follows. --

The memo referred to in your letter as having been prepared by Mr K. Chandy on 5-5-1910 giving the previous history of the case is not traceable in this office

Mr K. Chandy was not in charge of the District on that date

The memo referred to as apparently the one prepared by Mr A V. Ramanathan on 5-3-1910 and the date 5-5-10 seems to have been by clerical error entered in this office order dated 6-2-13

The other papers together with the records and copy of the Govt Order No 295 of 14-7-06 called for in the letter under reply are herewith submitted as per ferist.

It will be seen that except during the period which lasts from the time of Dhwajārohana to the time of Dhwajāvarohana of the Diety of a particular Agama, when one of another and different Agama is not carried in procession in front of the Temple of the former, there exists mamool for the Utsava of the Siva Image passing free in front of a Vishnu Temple and for that of the Vishnu Image likewise passing in front of a Siva Temple.

ఇక ఈ వ్యాసం ముగించే ముందు ఒక్క విషయం చెప్పాలి.

"ఆయుధం పరస్పరం విరుద్ధమైనప్పుడు శాస్త్రం ఏమి చేస్తుంది?"

అని ఒక ప్రశ్న ఉంది. ఇది ఒక తాత్విక ప్రశ్న. దీనికి సమాధానం ఇవ్వడం కష్టం.

ఒక ఆయుధం మరొక ఆయుధాన్ని ఎదుర్కోవడానికి ఉపయోగపడుతుంది. ఉదాహరణకు "శక్తి" ఆయుధాన్ని "శక్తి" ఆయుధంతో ఎదుర్కోవచ్చు. అలాగే "బ్రహ్మాస్త్రం" ఆయుధాన్ని "బ్రహ్మాస్త్రం" ఆయుధంతో ఎదుర్కోవచ్చు.

ఈ విధంగా ఆయుధాలు ఒకదానికొకటి ఎదురుపడినప్పుడు, ఒక ఆయుధం మరొక ఆయుధాన్ని ఎదుర్కోవడానికి ఉపయోగపడుతుంది.

The case was finally heard on 2nd March 1917, both the apltS and the respts - SriVaishnavas of Mandya - being represented by Counsel

It The main points for decision in this case are those mentioned in the sub Divl Officer's reports of 5th March 1910 and 21st February 1912. received with the records of enquiry. The points and The Observations of Govt thereon are noted below:- —

(1) What is the manual

relating to the utsavams of Sri Sakaleswara Swami Temple?

The temple though founded years previously had got no utsava murti till 1862, when one was made available for use by a devotee. Since the latter date the Smartha community have been making representations with the very purpose of creating and establishing a mamul and in the face of this circumstance it would be a futile attempt to look for an existing mamul — no mamul exists

(2) As the Sri Jagannatha Swami Temple is situated [illegible]

murti of Sri Sakaleswara Swami is proposed to be taken in utsava a public or a private one? The fact that the road is maintained and looked after by the town municipality is sufficient indication that the street is a public and not a private one. The road is not closed to the general public and as such, the inference can only be that it is not, in any sense, a private one. As such it is not open to the Sri-Vaishnava Community to object to the utsava being conducted along this street.

(3) Is it manual to prohibit a Sivaite utsavam from passing through a public street in which a Vaishnavite temple is situated and in front of the latter or vice versa?

The consensus of opinion expressed by those versed in Agamic lore is that there should be no "Bandar Shand" i.e. that the images of two deities should not be brought vis-a-vis with one another. So long as this contingency is, or can be, avoided, there can be no more prohibition as that in question. This contingency can be, and is, really avoided in many ways. One way in which it is usually done is to draw across a purda in front of the Sanctum Sanctorum during the period that an utsava is passing in front of it. This is helped by another obstruction of a permanent nature viz the Garuda khamba.

In Every day practice this is the Solution to the problem and the accepted practice in Vogue in my home city. Situated within the Fort in this city are well known and very important temples both Saivite and Vaishnavite - and utsavams
of their utsava murtis
take place several times during the course of a year.
By the very nature of their location it is absolutely necessary for one procession to pass in front of two or more temples which are not necessarily of the same persuasion. And this has happened for years now and no trouble would appear to have been experienced at any time the objections of the Sri Vaishnavas of the locality to the procession passing in front of their temple does not appear to be either reasonable or justifiable

3. In these circumstances, Govt are of opinion that the contention of the Sri Vaishnavas is untenable, and that the Nattavam proposed may be permitted, necessary precautions to prevent apprehended breaches of peace being taken by the local magistracy and the Police, should circumstances indicate or require it
